

Activism Campaign Focused Convo (with large group):

1. What caught your attention about these three examples?
2. What is most exciting about the three examples?
3. What are you doubtful about?
4. When have you experienced or gotten involved with campaigns similar to these examples?
5. Great, let's continue with the training. Thank you all for sharing.

Amnesty Activism Campaigns and Social Media Campaigns focused convo (with large group):

1. What stood out to you about amnesty activism campaign examples and social media campaigns?
2. What tools do you think would be easiest to use? Which ones would be the most difficult?
3. Which tools do you think would have the most impact?
4. Great, let's continue with the training. Thank you all for sharing.

Campaign Planning and reflection: small group focused convo and discussion:

1. What caught your attention about planning an activism campaign?
2. What was new information for you? What information is more familiar?
3. What tools can you envision being helpful for the CVIC CAT team?
4. What applications or action ideas has this session triggered for you?
(report back to the larger group on the tools that you see being helpful for the CAT team, and what applications or action ideas the session has triggered).

In your small group:

1. What do you remember about the news story in Devil's Lake when the school district banned jeggings, leggings and yoga pants?
2. What was concerning about this incident with regard to sexual violence and intimate partner violence?
3. What could an activism campaign to capitalize on this news story look like? What components would be most relevant? What ideas do you have?
4. What would you do to help ensure the campaigns success?

(if time) Report to the larger group on questions 3 and 4.