

Process Overview - Online Applications

Patient has a debilitating medical condition

Patient completes online application for a registry ID card

Health Care Provider executes a written certification

Approved patient receives a registry identification card

Patient can purchase usable marijuana through a registered dispensary