

Ransom County

“Helping to meet the needs of mothers for a short period of time can pay off in the long run with a satisfied employee. It is a win-win!”

Tricia Roesler

Ransom County provides a private, comfortable room for lactating mothers. Employees are allowed flexible break times to pump.

Program Components:

Private Area to Express Milk:

Ransom County provides a small office area with a comfortable chair.

Breastfeeding Equipment:

Employees are expected to provide their own lactation-related equipment and supplies. Refrigeration is provided.

Milk Expression Scheduling:

No schedule has been needed up to this point.

Education:

The personnel committee has been educated on the policy.

Support:

The employees are supported as is shown by the flexibility given in their work schedule.

Program Impact:

- Clients, as well as employees, have found the room inviting and have used it extensively.
