

WHAT'S NEW REDBAT VERSIONS 4.01- 4.06

Version 4.01

- Allows any extension for import file
- Addresses issues with export template
- Addresses issues related to conversion

Version 4.02

- Addresses issues related to conversion
- Addresses issues related to calculating syndrome scores
- Changes the number of flags which print using Gustav algorithm
- Addresses issues related to export template

Version 4.03

- Added ability to send data by email
- Message changed related to manual import

Version 4.04

- Marks converted database as exported during conversion
- Allows user to specify a sub network
- Merge Now – Message added telling user which facility data comes from
- Addresses issues related to problem with ATA running
- Export template – addresses issues with saving choices

Version 4.05

- New design of export template – other export template changes
- Allows RBFiles directory name with a space
- Allows ATA to be run more than once a day
- Adds fields missing in previous conversion, also adds Age-Group field, ILI
- Addresses FTP issues
- New Syndrome.clc file

Version 4.05 (second release)

- New Syndrome.clc file (additional revisions in ILI calculation)
- Revised RedBat Manual
- Message added during install warning against stand alone install
- Utility to locate other RB installs added

Version 4.06

- Graph enhancements (add text, exploded pie, whole values on Y axis)
- Import/export/merge – time field added. This allows scheduling events at specific times.
- Reports – To speed up report generation, installation sets a higher default cache setting on the server. (These settings can also be increased by your network administrator).