

NDDOT is working with Accident Scene Management in providing a training session for EMTs, Trauma Nurses, Doctors, etc on motorcycle crash victims.

Vicki Sanfelipo, RN, is the Executive Director of ASMI/Road Guardians (A Motorcycle Riders Community) www.roadguardians.org . She will be in North Dakota on Oct 3, 2012 for the Injury Prevention Control Conference at the Radisson Hotel. She will provide a professional class titled "Anatomy of a Motorcycle Crash" from 6:00PM - 9:00PM. This will be free to all participants. Hour per hour CEUs will be provided to EMS participants.

What: 400 Series: “Anatomy of a Motorcycle Crash”
Professional Class Curriculum
Cost: Typical Fee – ~~$40.00~~ being offered now for NO CHARGE
When: October 3, 2012; 6:00 – 9:00PM
Where: Radisson Hotel, Bismarck North Dakota

This class assumes knowledge of basic treatment and concentrates on specific motorcycle related concerns such as scene safety, helmet removal, mechanisms of injury and psychosocial aspects.

CEUs issued for EMS providers

If you are interested in attending this training please let NDDOT know so they can reserve a room to accommodate all participants. Please contact Carol Thurn, 701-328-4354, or cthurnd@nd.gov by

August 1, 2012

Registration extended to August 28, 2012